TONIGHT'S REFEREE

Mr. James Cattlin, from Rochdale, is in his third season as a top-class referee, having been appointed to the Football League list after graduating through the Lancashire Combination and West Lancashire League.

He is 42 and a textile yarn salesman by occupation.

Mr. Cattlin played as an amateur in Lancashire football. He is also well known in that area as a cricketer—he has played in the Central Lancashire League for the past 27 seasons—and is a good-class table-tennis player, too.

His major soccer appointments, so far, have been mainly "on the line" in important European Cup matches, among them Real Madrid v. Atletico Madrid, Milan v. Dortmund, Glasgow Rangers v. Nice, and Hibernian v. Stade Rheims.
